The Wonderland Moving Picture company opened the twenty-fifth week with a crowded house last night, and words cannot express the beauty of the pictures to be seen this week. "Our New Policeman," "Too Many Children," and "Onions Make a People Weep" are brim full of fun. "The Life Boat" is instructive. "A Four-year-old Heroine" is grand. "The Blacksmith's Daughter" should be seen by every girl in the world, and ministers will do well to preach a sermon on this picture. "The Wolf and the Statue" is a mystery that holds an audience as in a dream. "A Square Deal" is a western reality and shows the right kind of sympathy.

Snowed Under!

The Red Letter Cut Price Sale Did It.

Did you see the crowds at the Arcade Saturday? Barre did not look much like a dead town, did it? We had lots of extra people, but still not sufficient to wait on everybody properly. You had better try to do some of your shopping during the week. Don't wait till Saturday, you get better service on other days and there will surely be a constant rush until end of sale. It can't be otherwise. The prices do the work and such prices cannot last always. Every purchaser was satisfied they found just exactly what we promised, in fact, more than expected. People came from far and near and learned what great things the Arcade does for Barre. Old-time high prices are now a thing of the past. We will pursue modern methods of merchandising and give everybody a chance. The Arcade is a good thing for you and we will make it a good thing for us. Come to this sale. We want to show you what we are doing for you.
